

To book your tickets for HURTWOOD NIGHTS, please email us at events@hurtwoodparkpolo.com

or call the Events Office on 01483 272828, ext.3

TICKET PRICES:

The Friday night concerts are priced at £10pp which includes a free BBQ

All Saturday night concerts are £10 in advance or £15 on the night.
(This does not include BBQ, but you are welcome to bring picnics, or there will be food available to purchase from the Clubhouse.)

If you would like to book a 'Weekend Package' these will be priced at £15 to include both nights.

(a £2.50 booking fee will apply for all credit card transactions.
Or you can purchase tickets directly from the Events Office.)

FRIDAY 30th JULY

The Live Loungers perform their own unique arrangements of popular songs with a wide range of tunes from Rock, Pop, Soul, Motown and Jazz genres. They have worked alongside artists such as Robbie Williams, Sting, Jools Holland, Jamiroquai and Skunk Anansie and have travelled the world playing to audiences of up to 100,000 people. Guaranteed to have you up dancing!

also featuring...

Debbie Giles' Midnight Train is a mix of Funk, Soul, Blues and R & B creating an uplifting and dynamic set, which appeals to a wide range of audiences with influences from Bonnie Raitt to Little Feat, Etta James to Bill Withers, Steely Dan, James Brown and Keb Mo. Delivering smooth rich vocals, Debbie is backed by legendary drummer Sam Kelly, voted British Blues Connection "Drummer of the Year" for five years running, Steve Oakman, a vibrant & creative keyboard player, Pete Emery on guitar as well as Chris Belshaw on steady funky bass.

SATURDAY 31st JULY

THE FABBAGIRLS are quite simply the best Abba Tribute Band in the business. Their saucy sense of humour and fabulous vocals coupled with stunning costumes and choreography puts them right at the top of their game.

Fronted by Susie Webb and Zoe Nicholas, THE FABBAGIRLS have performed all over the world with hundreds of famous names in the industry, including Queen, The Beach Boys, Eric Clapton, Bono, Lionel Ritchie and many other great performers.

We welcome them back to Hurtwood Park at the end of July for another fabulous open air party from the Dancing Queens.

SATURDAY 21st AUGUST

No Jacket Required The Phil Collins Tribute plus Support

The UK's only 11-piece Phil Collins Tribute, bring their spectacular show to Hurtwood Park Polo & Country Club on Saturday 21st August. The line up boasts a full Brass Section, Percussion and Backing Vocalists and their frontman Dave Whitehouse, has to be heard to be believed. So bring picnics, and enjoy a memorable evening re-living some of the best songs from the past three decades in the company of the ultimate Phil Collins Tribute. www.nojacketrequired.co.uk

Formed in 2003, they have been on successive nationwide tours, playing to sell-out venues up and down the country, culminating in a trip to Luxembourg where they headlined a festival in front of 5,000 people.

They continue to sell-out shows at 'The Capitol' in Horsham & 'The Hawth' in Crawley as well as raising awareness and monies for homeless charities (Shelter) & localised projects (The Bridge Trust) As Phil did at his concerts, collections have been made at every show over the past five years and, along with contributions from the band themselves, they have raised over £10,000.

FRIDAY 20th AUGUST

SAIICHI SUGIYAMA BAND

plus support from Hurtwood's fabulous 'Open Mic' Performers

The Saiichi Sugiyama Band, fronted by the soulful vocalist, Rietta Austin and a gospel newcomer, Lizzie Hibbert, play a jewel box of catchy original tunes with a groovy blend of Soul/Motown influenced original numbers topped with rocky Blues Guitar. Certainly guaranteed to get your feet tapping and your soul burning!

